ORDER IN PENDING CASE

25-7 IN RE D.C. CODE

The case is dismissed as moot.

Statement of Chief Justice Inslee: By dismissing as moot, it is clear we did not need to take this case. Because I do not believe inherent review jurisdiction exists, I would not have permitted this case. Inherent review did not need to be invented; there are other alternative solutions. For now, I will continue to note my disagreement with this approach wherever possible.
